	Yuzu
	Originating from the Yichang region of China, Yuzu is a uniquely flavoured species of fruit. The fruit itself embodies the flavour profile of lemon, orange and grapefruit to create a deliciously complex flavour. Our Yichang Rickey pays homage to this iconic fruit and delivers a truly refreshing taste.

	Meridian
	In traditional Chinese medicine, Meridian channels form a network in the body, through which qi (vital energy) flows. The Meridian theory and practice utilises these networks as a roadmap to navigate physical health and wellbeing. Our Meridian stirs and tantalises the senses – sip, relax and let the qi flow.

SESAME SOUR

	Taste	£17
	Toasted sesame Patrón, lemon and maple. The combination of sesame oil and this take on a sour, provides a velvety texture unique to this curation.

FRUIT MOUNTAIN TEA

	<h2>Taste</h2>	£17
	Bombay Premier Cru, peach and peony. This silky gin sour has a deliciously peachy profile with toasty tea providing a final flourish.
	<h2>Fruit Mountain</h2>
	Fruit Mountain is named after WW in China, a fictional location from the novel 'Journey to the West', where a traveller passed from the Zhejiang region, through to the Gansu region. These two locations are famous for their production of stone fruit and teas respectively. The drink represents what could have been explored and discovered throughout the journey.
